WINTER IN CHICAGO

Chicago parks are not just for warm weather months! Two of the best parks are Grant Park (www.chicago park district.com) and Millennium Park (www.millenniumpark.org). Go ice-skating at the McCormick Tribune Ice Rink and be surrounded by an incredible skyline. See the Cloud Gate sculpture, a.k.a the “Bean”. During this season, hundreds of singers led by various Chicago choral groups gather each Friday to sing holiday classics.

The Soldier Field Sledding Hill stays lit at night and features a 220-foot slope. Grab a sled, snowboard or toboggan and get ready for some fearless fun. www.soldier field.net

Skiing? In the middle of the city? Visit Northerly Island, a 91-acre peninsula that some call the best-kept secret in Chicago. Cross-country skiing or snowshoeing with incredible views of the skyline, birds and native animals. chicago park district.com

With the clip-clop of hooves, you can be transported back to simpler days on a cozy carriage ride through the city. Numerous companies offer tours, including Chicago Horse & Carriage. chicagocarriage.com

Take your sightseeing to new heights for incredible views of the Chicago skyline. The Ledge at Skydeck Chicago in Willis Tower (www.theskydeck.com) puts you more than 100 stories above the bustling streets—in a glass box! 360Chicago (www.360chicago.com), formerly known as the John Hancock Observatory, offers expansive sights of the city, a 94th floor café, interactive technologies, and the new exhilarating angle of TILT, where you can step inside the glass and steel moveable platform that slowly tilts outward on an angle, providing downward-facing views of the city from 1,000 feet!

INDOOR WONDERS

To warm up from the inside out, try one of the city’s “tropical” indoor getaways! Walk among 1,000 butterflies in the ballyard Jody Istock Butterfly Haven at the Peggy Noteburt Nature Museum (www.nature museum.org). Try one of the free Conservatory Scavenger Hunts at the Garfield Park Conservatory (www.garfield-conservatory.org). Celebrate the holidays at Lincoln Park Conservatory, a stunning 19th century Victorian glass haven (www.chicago park district.com). Gaze at the world’s largest Tiffany stained-glass dome, as well as beautifully ornate multi-colored mosaics, marble and molding during guided architectural tours of the Chicago Cultural Center (www.cityofchicago.org).

Chicago is home to more than 40 museums. From Biomechanics to Evolving Planet, there are so many exciting reasons to visit The Field Museum (www.fieldmuseum.org). Dive into a holiday-themed aquatic spectacle at the Shedd Aquarium (www.shedd aquarium.org). Lay eyes upon the works of African-American artists at the DuSable Museum of African American History (www.dusab museum.org). From tornados to Tesla coils, ancient boats to futuristic ‘bots, the interactive and award-winning exhibits at the Museum of Science and Industry (www.msichicago.org) bring science to life for guests of all ages. Surround yourself with works from all times and areas at the Art Institute of Chicago (www.artic.edu).

MORE HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

The Museum of Science and Industry has an especially magical quality around the holidays. In the special annual exhibitions, Christmas Around the World and Holidays of Light, you’ll see how nations around the world celebrate this unique time of year. www.msichicago.org

Gather the whole family and visit ZooLights at the Lincoln Park Zoo, one of Chicago’s favorite free festivities. Roughly two million lights illuminated tunnels, live ice carvings, fun crafts for kids and Santa Claus himself. www.lpzoo.org

Unique holiday lights tours are offered by Segway Experience of Chicago (www.my segwayexperience.com), Chicago Trolley and Double Decker Co. (www.coachusa.com/chicagotrolley), and About Tours (www.about toursco.com). Or explore popular buildings and hidden gems on an architecture tour. Be a part of one of the largest growing races as thousands of Santas will hit the streets of Chicago at the Seventh Annual Santa Hustle 5k Run/Walk at Soldier Field on December 3. There will be outrageous holiday decorations, candy and cookie stations on the course. www.soldierfield. net/content/santa-hustle-5k-0

The city’s holiday spirit will be at an all-time high when Rogers Park hosts the inaugural winter celebration Polar Palooza, Dec. 3-4. The event features fabulous entertainment, an all-seasons synthetic ice skating rink, a Christmas tree lot, holiday shopping at unique, local, socially conscious vendor booths, food and drink from some of the best restaurants, crafts, cookie decorating, costumed photos, face painting, stilt walkers, and costumed characters. www.cityofchicago.org

FAMILY FUN

Be a kid again with family-friendly fun. Go to American Girl Place for shopping, afternoon tea and a fun photo shoot. www.americangirl.com

Stop by the lakefront playground Navy Pier for Winter WonderFest, complete with an indoor ice skating rink, rides, an indoor Ferris wheel and more. Opens Dec. 3. navy Pier.com/winter-wonderfest

At Chicago Children’s Museum, you can climb on a schooner, hide in a tree house, construct a skyscraper, make art you can take home and so much more. www.chicagoc childrens museum.org

SHOPPING

Don’t miss the historic, 9-story Macy’s on State Street, one of the largest department stores in the world. visitmacychicago.com

For hundreds of high-end stores and retailers, shop magnificently as you walk down The Magnificent Mile on Michigan Avenue. Your holiday spirit will be ignited by the holiday lights. themagnificentmile.com

Shop for exquisite items handcrafted by artisans and enjoy authentic German foods and beverages at Christkindl, a charming outdoor holiday market inspired by 16th-century European marketplaces. www.christkindlmarket.com

The Maxwell Street Market is a Chicago tradition of bargains and bargaining with an international flavor and offers an eclectic mix of merchandise and some of the best Mexican and Latin street food in Chicago. www.cityofchicago.org

A refreshing alternative to traditional retail, the 16th annual One of a Kind Show & Sale, Holiday Edition, is the ideal place to find gifts for everyone on your holiday list. Head to the Merchandise Mart, Dec. 1-4, and chat with artists, attend demonstrations and workshops, all while enjoying gourmet cafes, fashion shows and live music. www.oneofak indshowchicago.com

Stop by the Chicago Cultural Center or visit www.choosechicago.com to see more of the amazing attractions that await you in Chicago!
The Podiatry Institute is approved by the Council on Podiatric Medical Education as a provider of continuing education in podiatric medicine. The Podiatry Institute has approved this activity for a maximum of 20.0 continuing education contact hours.
